The Legacy of Mike Quevedo, Sr.

For the past 20 years, the Southern California District Council of Laborers has been sponsoring the Mike Quevedo Sr. Scholarship Fundraising event to honor the legacy left by Mike Quevedo Sr.

Mike Sr. came to Los Angeles from New Mexico at the age of 16 in 1926 and started his career in the construction industry in 1940. During World War II, he served as a labor relations representative for the Latino workers in the San Pedro shipyard. In 1950 he was elected to the Executive Board of Laborers Local 300 and he was soon elected Secretary Treasurer. In 1959, Mike Sr. became the first Latino to be elected as Business Manager. In 1961, Mike retired when he became very ill.

Mike, Sr. was one of Labor's Pioneers who believed it was important to contribute our all towards the betterment of our young people, our local communities and our country as a whole. His desire was to see that dependents of members of the Southern California Laborers Union would have the right to better education.

With your support we are able to continue his legacy and make available scholarships to eligible candidates that will be pursuing a post-secondary education program.
